Howl	Robert Epstein & Jeffery Friedman	1998	USA	84 min	6.7	It's San Francisco in 1957, and an American masterpiece is put on trial. Howl, the film, recounts this dark moment using three interwoven threads: the tumultuous life events that led a young Allen Ginsberg to find his true voice as an artist, society's reaction (the obscenity trial), and mind-expanding animation that echoes the startling originality of the poem itself.
Inherit the Wind	Stanley Kramer	1960	USA	128 min	8.1	Scoped Money Trial: A small Tennessee town gained national attention in 1925 when a biology schoolteacher was arrested for violating state law and teaching Darwin's theory of evolution in the classroom
Jesus of Montreal	Denys Arcand	1989	Canada	118 min	7.5	A group of actors put on an unorthodox, but acclaimed Passion Play which incites the opposition of the Catholic Church while the actors' lives themselves begin to mirror the Passion itself.
Manuscripts Don't Burn	Mohammad Rasoulof	2013	Iran	126 min	7.2	Drawing from the true story of the Iranian government's 1995 attempted murder of several prominent writers and intellectuals, the film has two agents looking for a manuscript that chronicles the murders. The film imagines a repressive regime so pervasive that even the morally righteous are subsumed or cast aside.
Monty Python: Life of Brian	Terry Jones	1979		1 hr 34 min	8.1	The story of Brian of Nazareth (Graham Chapman), born on the same day as Jesus of Nazareth, who takes a different path in life that leads to the same conclusion. Brian joins a political resistance movement aiming to get the Romans out of Judea. Brian scores a victory of sorts when he manages to paint political slogans on an entire wall in the city of Jerusalem. The movement is not very effective but somehow Brian becomes a prophet and gathers his own following. His fate is sealed however and he lives a very short life.

Nobody Speak: Trials of the Free Press	Brian Knappenberger	2017	USA	1 hr 35 min	6.5	The trial between Hulk Hogan and Gawker Media pitted privacy rights against freedom of the press, and raised important questions about how big money can silence media. This film is an examination of the perils and duties of the free press in an age of inequality.
One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich	Caspar Wrede	1970	Norway	1 hr, 40 min	7.1	Ivan Denisovich Shukhov has been sentenced to a camp in the Soviet gulag system, accused of becoming a spy after being captured briefly by the Germans as a prisoner of war during World War II. He is innocent, but is sentenced to ten years in a forced labor camp. Based on the life of Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn.
The People Vs. Larry Flynt	Milos Forman	1996	USA	130 min	7.3	Based on the true story of the notorious Hustler publisher who was sued by the Religious Right, paralyzed by a fanatic's bullet, and how he became a defender of free speech..
Persepolis	Vincent Paronnaud & Marjane Satrapi	2007	USA?	1 hr 35 min	8.0	In 1970s Iran, Marjane 'Marji' Satrapi watches events through her young eyes and her idealistic family of a long dream being fulfilled of the hated Shah's defeat in the Iranian Revolution of 1979. As Marji grows up, she witnesses first hand how the new Iran, now ruled by Islamic fundamentalists, has become a repressive tyranny on its own. With Marji dangerously refusing to remain silent at this injustice, her parents send her abroad to Vienna to study for a better life. However, this change proves an equally difficult trial. Even when she returns home, Marji finds that both she and homeland have changed too much and the young woman and her loving family must decide where she truly belongs

The Rite	Ingmar Bergman	1969	Sweden	70 min	NR	A judge in an unnamed country interviews three actors, together and singly, provoking them while investigating a pornographic performance for which they may face a fine.
Shadows of Liberty	Jean-Philippe Tremblay	2012	UK	93 min	7.9	Shadows of Liberty reveals the extraordinary truth behind the news media: censorship, cover-ups, and corporate control. Filmmaker Jean-Philippe Tremblay takes a journey through the darker corridors of the US media, where global conglomerates call the shots. For decades, their overwhelming influence has distorted news journalism and compromised its values. Tracing the story of media manipulation through the years, Shadows of Liberty poses a crucial question: why have we let a handful of powerful corporations write the news? We're left in no doubt-- media reform is urgent and freedom of the press is fundamental
Shut up and Sing	Barbara Kopple and Cecilia Peck	2006	USA	1 hr 33 min	7.6	With the US invasion of Iraq about to begin, one of the Dixie Chicks vents off the cuff in concert about being ashamed of US President George W. Bush . This statement sparks a firestorm of organized and personal right wing attacks against the Chicks for daring to think they have the right to express a negative personal opinion about the President.
Spotlight	Tom McCarthy	2015	USA	129 min	8.1	The true story of the Pulitzer Prize-winning Boston Globe investigation that would rock the city and cause a crisis in one of the world's oldest and most trusted institutions. When the newspaper's tenacious 'Spotlight' team of reporters delve into allegations of sexual abuse of children by clergy in the Catholic Church, their year-long investigation uncovers a decades-long cover-up at the highest levels of Boston's religious, legal, and government establishment.
